ΔΕΜΟΔΟΧΟΣ

A journey to the greek and byzantine roots of southern Italy

Ensemble Oni Wytars together with some of the most outstanding musicians from the Mediterranean take a trip to a labyrinth of islands of archaic sounds and amazing tales, told in nearly forgotten languages of a nearly forgotten culture.

Praise songs dedicated to the sun and tarantellas, instruments that have survived millenia and sounds of today's folk-traditions – in a world between the Aegean, the Ionian and the Tyrrhenian Sea and Sardinia.

Belinda Sykes - voice
Peter Rabanser - voice, double-flute, gaida
Marco Ambrosini - nyckelharp
Riccardo Delfino - harp
Efrén Lopez - oud
Ross Daly - cretan lyra, tarhu
Kelly Thoma - cretan lyra
Michael Posch - recorders and reedflutes
Luigi Lai - launeddas
Katharina Dustmann - bendir, def, davul, zarb
Carlo Rizzo - framedrums, tamburello

Première: Herne (WDR), 2010
