PRETIOSA MUSICORUM EXEMPLA

Music and talk

Performed on instruments of ancient Orient and their European successors of the Middle Ages and Renaissance Oni Wytars presents a journey through musical history from the beginning to the middle of the last millenium. Listening to numerous Oriental and Occidental instruments this programme provides an amazing discovery of the roots of European music.

About 20 different instruments from Orient and Occident will be explained and presented in music examples. The listener (of any age) shall have the opportunity to explore the history of western musical tradition, and maybe have a look at its amazing roots.
