Die Musik der Troubadours

The music and unique poetry of the great occitan and catalan Troubadours such as Jaufre Rudel, Beringuer de Palau and Giraut de Bornelh, a.o...

They dedicated their poetry and their music mostly to an un-reachable love, the „lady of their heart“, wich often was, like most of the Troubadours, from noble blood.

Princes, barons, also kings where among them and where keeping up and glorifying the traditions and noble manners of the Middle-ages.

An Early-music project in collaboration with UNICORN Ensemble / Vienna.
